You see I never understood
Why I'm such a wreck
Or why it feels so good
I only do things that people think I should
I never relax
I guess I never could

And I don't know how (I don't know how)
How it ever ended up like this
And I don't know how (I don't know how)
How it ever ended up like this

I guess for all this time I knew
I was in control
I was losing touch
And now I guess the only thing to do
Is to sell my soul
And it won't sell for much
I can't believe for all this time I knew
I was in control, I was losing touch
And yeah, I guess the only thing to do
Is to sell my soul
And watch it go like

Watch it go like
Watch it go like
(How it ever ended up like this)
Watch it go like
(How it ever ended up like this)

And I don't know how (I don't know how)
How it ever ended up like this
And I don't know how (I don't know how)
How it ever ended up like this

I guess for all this time I knew
I was in control
I was losing touch
And now I guess the only thing to do
Is to sell my soul
And it won't sell for much
I can't believe for all this time I knew
I was in control, I was losing touch
And yeah, I guess the only thing to do
Is to sell my soul
And watch it go like

Watch it go like
Watch it go like
(How it ever ended up like this)

Oh, it's a shame I still don't practice what I preach
Yeah
Life is a long shot quest for meaning
It's an urgency I'm feeling
I guess I could keep believing
If I took the time to try

And I'm not concerned with virtue
Guess I got a lot to work through
And I'd never mean to hurt you
Though I've never really tried

I guess for all this time I knew
I was in control
I was losing touch
And now I guess the only thing to do
Is to sell my soul
And it won't sell for much
I can't believe for all this time I knew
I was in control, I was losing touch
And yeah, I guess the only thing to do
Is to sell my soul
And watch it go like

Watch it go like
Watch it go like
(How it ever ended up like this)
Watch it go like
