

Got What I Got

Fox Stevenson

(Well I guess it never meant a lot to any of me ever anyway)
(And yeah, I'm sorry my intentions gave impressions of another way)

See, I got a lot to answer for
I've shed no blood, no sweat and no tears
Right as I'm picking up the call
I find I'm numb from these apathy years
Yeah, we could talk about something else
But I could hear it in her hesitation
She states a fact as a strong farewell
She said she's lost all respect and all patience

Yeah, I deserve that for sure
But oh, it don't sting at all
And I'm proud of how cold the truth is
Well

I guess I really don't mind
So long as I can get to sleeping at night
Like anything it takes time
A little healing, I'll be feeling all right
I know it sucks to let go
But on my own I'll find a life to call mine
Not used to being alone
But I got what I got and that'll do fine

Yeah, maybe I should be feeling more
Try as I might, this just ain't what I want
You don't deserve to be ignored
And I don't deserve to feel nothing at all

And well, I guess it never meant a lot to any of me ever anyway
And yeah, I'm sorry my intentions gave impressions of another way

Well, I know it hurts you for sure
But oh, it don't sting at all
And I'm proud of how cold the truth is
Well

I guess I really don't mind
So long as I can get to sleeping at night
Like anything it takes time
A little healing, I'll be feeling all right

Not used to being alone
But I got what I got and that'll do fine
