

High Five!

Fox Stevenson

Well I've been thinking 'bout my failures
And all that I can find is that I'm falling short
And I've been thinking maybe there's
A better way around than I've been thinking of

I'm feeling like I can't do right
But dammit I feel so alive
Tonight we're getting out of sight
We're getting out of mind
Can I get a high five?
(Yeah!)

She says, hold back
'Cause everything looks different from a different stance
I know, all that
You know that we won't lose if we get one last chance

We never see eye-to-eye
But I'm okay never knowing why
By morning we'll be gods by rights
And they'll make paintings of us in the sky

I'm feeling like I can't do right
But dammit I feel so alive
Tonight we're getting out of sight
We're getting out of mind
Can I get a high five?
(Yeah!)

We relax, we kick back
And watch the needle skipping as we tried to breath
We laugh
Cause' everybody's stupid and they just can't see
You know I
You know that I won't lose if I get one last chance
You know I
You know that I won't lose if I get one last chance
You know I
You know that I won't lose if I get one last chance
You know I
You know that I can't lose
(Yeah!)

I'm feeling like I can't do right
But dammit I feel so alive
Tonight we're getting out of sight
We're getting out of mind
Can I get a high five?
