Foxing

I was just thinking about
Watching television next to you
Just to sit there on the couch
Not do much of anything at all
Sacred insignificance
They are aims from the universe
I'm dragging myself back home

But I'm homesick everywhere I go
Oh, without you
I feel so homesick everywhere I go
Oh, without you
I feel so homesick everywhere I go
Oh, without you
I feel so homesick everywhere I go
Oh, without you
I feel so homesick everywhere I go
I'm homesick everywhere I go
I'm homesick everywhere I go

I was just thinking about
Arguing in the kitchen
Just to be that one you argue with
Is a miracle in itself
Sacred insignificance
Steeped in cosmic bliss
I'm dragging myself back home

But I'm homesick everywhere I go
Oh, without you
I feel so homesick everywhere I go
Oh, without you
I feel so homesick everywhere I go

Walk me to your love
The reason I walk at all
The reason to be homesick everywhere I go
Walk me to your love
The fiery core of
Why I feel homesick everywhere I go
Walk me to your love
The reason I walk at all
The reason to be homesick everywhere I go
Walk me to your love
The fiery core of
Why I feel homesick everywhere I go

Oh, without you
I feel so homesick everywhere I go
Oh, without you
I feel so homesick everywhere I go
Walk me to your love, the reason I walk at all
I feel so homesick everywhere I go
Walk me to your love, the fiery core of
I feel so homesick everywhere I go

Homesick everywhere I go

I 'm homesick everywhere I go
I was just thinking about
If you decide to leave
Just to be the one that you left
Just to be the one that you left
