Listen to me, listen to me
Listen to me, I said

It's almost like you never listen to me
When I'm speaking you should listen to me
It's almost like you never listen to me
When I'm speaking you should listen to me

I know I'm not some movie star
Reciting some big script
But if you open your mind
I might be able to tell you something

It's almost like you never listen to me
When I'm speaking you should listen to me
It's almost like you never listen to me
When I'm speaking you should listen to me

And though I've not been listening
To what you've been saying
I have my own words prepared
I'll put you right back where you belong

And though I have no formal training
On the current subject
Once I open my mouth
You'll see how sharp I really am
