

Lost On You

Foxwarren

Oh patient day
Bring the idle night
Do we live with it
If we close our eyes
Is it lost on you?

My faded heart
Finds a hollow word
Keep a broken part
For something easy to do
Could my echoed words
Skip across the sea
Fall into your ear
Give a sliver of me
Would it be lost on you?

Oh patient day
Bring the idle night
Do we live with it
If we close our eyes
