

Sunset Canyon

Foxwarren

Will I ever get to win again?
When I'm thinking of your blue eyes
Searchin' for a reason
Tonight I'm following the white lines
To lay back in an old motel
And dream that you are whole again

I'll be alright
When sunset canyon
Breathes the morning light
I'll be alright
Sunset cigarette
Greet the morning light

Will I ever find my feet again?
If I drank away the afternoon
Stumbled out the evening
Could I find you on the other end
Of my cigarette half-lit
See it flicker till it falls apart

I'll be alright
When sunset canyon
Breathes the morning light
I'll be alright
Sunset cigarette
Greet the morning light

I'll be alright
When sunset canyon
Breathes the morning light
I'll be alright
Sunset cigarette
Greet the morning light
