

Burn

Foxy Shazam

A book of faces memories
For your back-up brains
How many likes will it take
Until you feel the pain
Of an empty kiss
All the meaningless
It's a loveless fuck
Selfie lips like a duck

And all the beautiful lies in the news
Keep us alive and singing the blues
Start a fire in the mind of a child
And the world is gonna burn

Yeah, yeah, yeah

I think it's time
Let the truth be learned
I think it's time
To whom it concerns
I think it's time

I think it's time
The world's gonna burn
I think it's time
The world's gonna burn
Burn, baby, burn
Burn, baby, burn

The pretty eyes see through disguise
Leave the profile vain
Don't wanna lose the things we love
Best about our name
It's all material
And love's ethereal
It's such a lonely post
When all your friends are ghosts

And all the beautiful lies in the news
Keep us alive and singing the blues
Start a fire in the mind of a child
And the world is gonna burn

Yeah, yeah, yeah

I think it's time
Let the truth be learned
I think it's time
To whom it concerns
I think it's time

I think it's time
The world's gonna burn
I think it's time
The world's gonna burn
Burn, baby, burn
Burn, baby, burn

Close your eyes and imagine
A world inside, make it happen

I think it's time
Let the truth be learned
I think it's time
To whom it concerns
I think it's time
The world's gonna burn
The world's gonna burn
Burn, baby, burn

Burn, baby, burn
Burn, baby, burn
Burn, baby...
