

Have The Fun

Foxy Shazam

I used to be naive, a bit confused I must have seemed
I feel the time has come to tell myself the truth
I'm done with trying to prove, I need no teacher to allude
In words of a corner store, the pony's off the keg

I'm not afraid to die 'cause I'm already dead
And I have fueled the fire and it's burning red
I'm not scared to die 'cause I'm already dead
I want to have the fun (fun), I want to have the fun fun fun
Fun

I'm busting out of youth, I have desire don't need the proof
Words at the corner is the game has changed
I'd say the game has changed
The game has changed

I'm not afraid to die 'cause I'm already dead
And I have fueled the fire and it's burning red
I'm not scared to die 'cause I'm already dead
I want to have the fun (fun), I want to have the fun fun fun
Fun

Step right up and see the show
We've gone gonzo, throw a tomato
You are half-way through
You are half-way through

I'm not afraid to die 'cause I'm already dead
And I have fueled the fire and it's burning red
I'm not scared to die 'cause I'm already dead
I want to have the fun (fun), I want to have the fun

I want to have the fun 'cause I'm already dead
I want to have the fun 'cause I'm burning red
I'm not scared to die 'cause I'm already dead
I want to have the fun (fun), I want to have the fun fun fun
