In this life, with time you'll expire

If you know what you want then open your mouth

In this life, they'll cut you a slice

If you don't know what you want then shut your mouth
```

Please please please

Seek your destiny awaits you, better prepare for the world To beat the storm follow the light in your head through the dar \ensuremath{k}

I grind the grid, I'll raise the kids
I hope they get to feel the sting of falling in love

In your car, you can drive somewhere far

If you know what you want, stand where you are

In this life, take the advice

If you don't know what you want, shut your mouth mouth

Please please please

Seek your destiny awaits you, better prepare for the world To beat the storm follow the light in your head through the dar k

I grind the grid, I'll raise the kids
