

Magic

Foxy Shazam

Was it just a dream or was I there
Sterling light beams filet me rare
I woke up on the beach in a Japanese haze
Memories still in reach of a Disney parade ah

There ain't no wrong way to rock and roll
You sail those crystal ships straight through my soul

High above the lovers peak I made a promise to myself
Long ago I intend to keep I made a promise to myself
Nothing's cool until it's cool so be honest with yourself
Every little imperfection it makes it what it is

There ain't no wrong way to rock and roll
You rip those crystal licks straight through my soul

All is fair in love and rock and roll
All is fair in love and rock and roll
Every imperfection every rejection
All is fair in love and rock and roll
All is fair in love and rock and roll
Every imperfection every rejection

You don't have to see it to make it true
That's what magic is
That's what magic do
I can feel a little between me and you
And so it all begins this magic

That's what magic is
That's what magic do
I can feel a little between me and you
And so it all begins this magic
