

Tragic Thrill

Foxy Shazam

Tragic thrill, I'm finding out who I was, who I really am
Tragic world is tuning out what I am, who I've always been

Swing from a vine like Peter Pan
I got no cash flow, man, I'm working
I look at you, look at me, we feel nothing
I see decay, you seem afraid, I turn within

It's a tragic thrill, I'm finding out who I was, who I really am
Tragic world is tuning out what I am, who I've always been

I use my body for everyone
Father, mother, daughter, hot burning son
I look at you, look at me, we feel nothing
I see decay, you seem afraid, I turn within

Waiting, waiting, waiting for something, I don't know what
Standing on the corner for a change

It's a tragic thrill, I'm finding out who I was, who I really am
Tragic world, I scream and shout, what I am, who I've always been

Waiting, waiting, waiting for something, I don't know what
Looking, hoping, wishing, for a change
For a change
For a change

Tragic world, I scream and shout, what I am, who I've always been
Tragic world, tragic thrill, tragic world waiting for a change
