

Chains

Foxygen

I was walking dead slung hung up 43rd Boulevard, chains
I was feeling demented and special and all bad
So, can you just put that over there?
Yeah, right there, that's Right, Jim of the World
Are you ready? That's right

Now I know you've all got your gods
Well, I'm gonna tell you a little bit about my god
He says "Raise your hands in..."

I gave my love to thee
But it was too hard, Jesus
I sat in an endless sea
But my voice still could sink in me

We never talked about it
If it's college, fuck it
I am left, and I need some church now
Kept having, Children of the World

Does the spirit like you?
There's never something like it

It stopped God, in Hollywood

I gave my love to thee
But it was too hard, Jesus
I sat in an endless sea
But it never really felt complete

And when I'm not in the ground to be loved
Can you lift up my skeleton slow?
When the high school choir sings "Oh God"
I wanna hear their angel voices

I gave my love to thee
But it was too hard, Jesus
I sat in an endless sea
But it never really felt complete

And when I'm not in the ground to be loved
Can you lift up my skeleton slow?
When the high school choir sings "Oh God"
I wanna hear their angel voices
