

Dug Up!

Foxygen

When I'm gazing down at you
Cool, does it look ooh like I love you?
'Cause you know I don't

And I won't ever vomit up and confess that I owe you
For the summer, or for drugs lover [?] about it

When the bus sticks out of the water
The frozen water hooooooooo
Will turn around and lift you up

I don't think he will
I don't think she will
I don't think anybody out here will
Kind of girl, oh oh

Ah gotta get who? Gotta get who?
Ah gotta get who? Gotta get who?
Ah gotta get who? Gotta get who?
Ah gotta get who? Gotta get who?

His name at the party
With Sarah and Marley
Dropped her legs like money she warns me
The women suck when the moon is up
The women suck when the moon is up
Say that I owe you
Let me show you ya
My horn [?]
Yeah like wind

The school bus stuck at the water
The frozen water who lead the riot down
To the gay girls tomb
Not you

Dug up!
And now I have become
The bitch was no fun hey
Lift her up above her body
Oh, please uh huh ho ho
