Coco

Foy Vance

Coco, what do you know?
Do you know that the hills are covered in snow?
Where does it come from and where does it go?
Tell me, do you know, Coco?
Coco, what do you know?
Do you know why the workmen are digging that hole,
making a mess of every single road?
Tell me, do you know, Coco?
You don't know where the whales go in the water
You don't know why in space, there's no such thing as time
But you know every girl is someone's daughter
And your daddy must be proud
Well, I'd be proud if you were mine
Coco, what do you know?
Do you know all about the trains of old?
Well, they only moved when they burned up coal
Tell me, do you know, Coco?
You don't know where the whales go in the water
You don't know why in space, there's no such thing as time
But you know every girl is someone's daughter
And your daddy must be proud
Oh, I'd be proud if you were mine
You don't know where the whales go in the water
You don't know why in space, there's no such thing as time
But you know every girl is someone's daughter
And your daddy must be proud
As I'd be proud if you were mine
Coco, what do you know?
Do you know what happens to your very soul?
Where does it come from?
Where does it go?
Tell me, do you know, Coco?
