Fractures

I wake, no feeling in my arms
I'm safe
Please stay, I'll bathe beneath your heaving lungs
Don't wake, don't wake

I am whole, I am light, I am something
I'm alright, I am calm, I am something

Your face, I see it in my slumber shapes
Don't change, just keep me in a locked embrace
I'm safe

I am whole, I am light, I am something
I'm alright, I am calm, I am something

Keep my head upright, hold my thoughts in line, hunt what you c an't find
Slow my heartbeat down, get my insides out, find my insides

If I lose my mind, If I lose control, won't you pull me out, wo n't you save my soul
If I lose my mind, If you can't console, won't you pull me out,
Won't you save me now

I am whole, I am light, I am something
I'm alright, I am calm, I am something
I am whole, I am light, I am something
I'm alright, I am calm, I am something
