

Burnt

Fractures

Everything until now had an order
Everything up to this point resolved
Find myself I'm thrashing underwater
And I'm overcome, I'm overcome

Maybe I was waiting for a saviour
And maybe I'd imagined something more
If only, if only I
Suddenly I am floating, I am weightless
And slowly it all unwinds
And slowly I'm losing light

Help me find the pieces
Tell me I'll be fine
Help me cover weakness
Or can I, just rewind, feel myself and ease my mind

I've been pulled apart, I can't seem to settle in
If only I knew why I'm lost and what I'm caught in

Help me find the pieces
Tell me I'll be fine
Help me cover weakness
Or can I, just rewind, feel myself and ease my mind

Help me find the pieces
Tell me I'll be fine
Help me cover weakness
Or can I, just rewind, feel myself and ease my mind
