

Did I hear you say that you need some time?
Can I plead my case, can I share my side?
You put it in a message, like it was something to hide
But I missed what you meant when you said it quiet
Slowly let me realize I was out of time
I'm holding onto us while we capsize

You say you see another vessel
And do I drop my anchor or do I cut my line?
You say you sank down to my level
How can I stop myself when everything's stuck inside?

Did I hear you say that you changed your mind
So I gave you space and I gave you time, until she says it's over
You hid it in a message, never gave a warning sign
Did you think I would know what you felt inside
Never let me in your mind, you were out of sight
A fading shadow

You say you see another vessel
And do I drop my anchor or do I cut my line?
You say you sank down to my level
How can I stop myself when everything's stuck inside?

You say you see another vessel
And do I drop my anchor or do I cut my line
You say you sank down to my level
How can I stop myself when everything's stuck inside?

I don't need a reason
I guess I just need you to clarify
Clarify...
Why you lost that feeling
Was it just that you weren't satisfied?
Weren't you satisfied?

You say you see another vessel
And do I drop my anchor or do I cut my line?
You say you sank down to my level
How can I stop myself when everything's stuck inside?

You say you see another vessel
And do I drop my anchor or do I cut my line?
You say you sank down to my level
How can I stop myself when everything's stuck inside?
