

I Don't Mind

Fractures

It's hard to see you in this light
From outside, I'm outside
Shivering along my spine
I'm alright, I'll be fine

There's something different in your eyes
I'm alright, I don't mind
Something in the way you're smiling
I don't mind, I don't mind

So, before you walk away from me
And before you have your final piece
You're the one thing I could never keep
You're the one thing

It's hard to see what you have found
Missing signs, all those signs
Revelling in all your doubts
What'd you find, I'm not your type

Now these dogs are gonna sniff you out
I don't mind, I don't mind
Now these dogs are gonna hunt you down
I don't mind, I don't mind

So, before you walk away from me
And before you have your final piece
You're the one thing I could never keep
You're the one thing

Where'd you get that smile, so designed, you can see the lines
Swear I heard you say you're mine, why'd you lie, why these lies?
Can't I feel you one more time, please don't fight, please don't fight it
Fumbling, I'm almost crying, stay inside, stay inside
Can't you see you rule my life, but I'm alright, I'll be fine

Now these dogs are gonna sniff you out
I don't mind, I don't mind
Now these dogs are gonna hunt you down
I don't mind, I don't mind
Now these dogs are gonna sniff you out
I don't mind, I don't mind
Now these dogs are gonna hunt you down
I don't mind, I don't mind
