Fractures

Do you want some, someone, someone
Feel you moving closer and closer?
Seems you are open, open, open
Let me take you over and over

'Cause I can feel a fondness, I think there is a connection
And can I give you something? Can I take your time?
I don't want a problem, I just thought we shared intentions
I know that I'm falling, could you give a sign?

Do you want some, someone, someone
Feel you moving closer and closer?
Seems you are open, open, open
Let me take you over and over

The sound reverberates around my head
And I noticed the closeness when our eyes met
Slow down the time and maybe we connect (If I'm honest)
I have got this feeling
I call it infatuation
Tell you there is promise
I think this could last a while

Do you want some, someone, someone
Feel you moving closer and closer?
Seems you are open, open, open
Let me take you over and over

Closer and closer
Over and over

Do you want some, someone, someone
Feel you moving closer and closer?
Seems you are open, open, open
Let me take you over and over
