

Plateau

Fractures

If I could look into your mind,
Step inside your shelter,
What am I at risk of finding?
One last look, and one last fight
Yeah, we talk but we collide
Yeah, we thought that we'd survive

Oh, here comes a comatose
Not sure of where it goes
A weakness that we don't know
It's not so simple
Oh, we wait in a plateau
Heavy and overdosed
Not ready to let this go
It's not that simple

I've gotta do some headwork
It's overdue, now it feels worse
It's not good for you if it still hurts
I've got nowhere to move in this mess
When I'm next to you, I feel hopeless
Holding on to whatever's left

Oh, here comes a comatose
Not sure of where it goes
A weakness that we don't know
It's not so simple
Oh, we wait in a plateau
Heavy and overdosed
Not ready to let this go
It's not that simple

I don't regret, you pulled me under
I fell in love for what it's worth
It isn't fair to pull you under
But I'm still in love with what we were

Oh, here comes a comatose
Not sure of where it goes
A weakness that we don't know
It's not so simple
Oh, we wait in a plateau
Heavy and overdosed
Not ready to let this go
It's not that simple
