

Raspberries

Fractures

You're my heatwave
Got me sun dazed
And you know any time that you want
You can take, you can break my heart
No one could do it better

And there's nobody else who could make me burn hot as the sun
Nobody else who could make me hurt
I come undone every time I'm under your angel eyes
How could you be so cruel?

Baby don't you see how you melt me like berries in your mouth
I could be the one that you need, I'm sweet like berries in your mouth

Feels like I'm in slow motion, lost in my devotion
You make a good girl's heart bleed red as raspberries

I can't see straight, my head's sideways
You've got me sweating, you monopolise my mind

You make me forget what I was even saying
Elevate me higher than I ever was
Don't apologise cause I can't help myself around you
And you just act so cool

Baby don't you see how you melt me like berries in your mouth
I could be the one that you need, I'm sweet like berries in your mouth

Feels like I'm in slow motion, lost in my devotion
You make a good girl's heart bleed red as raspberries

Feels like I'm in slow motion, lost in my devotion
You make a good girl's heart bleed red as raspberries

Feels like I'm in slow motion, lost in my devotion
You make a good girl's heart bleed red as raspberries
