

Reset

Fractures

I know that I'm confused, don't know how to help myself
I know that my days are wasted, faithful to a fault
Been waiting on breakthroughs, been waiting on someone else
It's weighing my head down lately, buried by the thoughts

Something I can't see, how I am to become the whole total
The thing that I think that I've dreamed of
I want a release from this capture, I need to relieve myself
I have to rebuild and restructure, I need a release

I think I'm ready to run, I think I'm ready to reset now
Forget about that I don't know what I want
So tell me why, I still pretend it's alright
That I am barely alive so I will realign
Till I figure out this life then I'll stop running

Just get me out of this vacuum, find me a future
To cut to one with certainty's just fine
I'm busy searching for signal, finding something essential
You find me swimming in circles, I can't stay afloat much longer

'Cause time has made me weak
And I'm beginning to see that this picture
Doesn't look like the one that I'd wished for

I think I'm ready to run, I think I'm ready to reset now
Forget about that I don't know what I want
So tell me why, I still pretend it's alright
That I'm barely alive so I will realign
Till I figure out this life then I'll stop running

Have I changed, did I become incapable
But I wonder if my hesitations
Have magnified the minuscule

I think I'm ready to run, I think I'm ready to reset now
Forget about that I don't know what I want
So tell me why, I still pretend it's alright
That I am barely alive so I will realign
Till I figure out this life then I'll stop running
I'll stop running
I'll stop running
If I figure out this life then I'll stop running
Then I'll stop running
I'll stop running
If I figure out this life then I'll stop
