

Carousel

Framing Hanley

Skeletons parade my hallway
Pursuin' my demise
I quantify the cost in slumber
I'm losin' every night
Every night

This carousel keeps spinnin' around
And I'm just hopin'
When my feet touch solid ground
I'll find the gravity
To pull you into me
You're the balance that I need in my life
In this carnival of lies

Let's clear the air
We know I'm damaged
A saint, I am not (I try)
My resolve, I barely understand
A lost cause, tryna comprehend
My, design

This carousel keeps spinnin' around
And I'm just hopin'

When my feet touch solid ground
I'll find the gravity
To pull you into me
You're the balance that I need in my life
In this carnival of lies

So let's not abandon the shore
We're runnin' out, runnin' out the storm
So let's not abandon the shore

I'll find the gravity
To pull you into me
To pull you into me

This carousel keeps spinnin' around
And I'm just hopin'
When my feet touch solid ground
I'll find the gravity
To pull you into me
You're the balance that I need in my life
In this carnival
