

Raining In LA

Franc Moody

Miles away
From home

Miles away
From home

Nothing is quite what it seems
When you're chasing a dream
Old shores you left behind
That you'll never see
And I know it's gonna be tough girl
Cos I'll miss the way you are
But I never felt so close to you right now
But I've never been so far

Oh it's raining
It's raining
Raining in LA
Come home
Oh it's raining
It's raining
Raining in LA
Come home

Raining in LA
Come home
Raining in LA
Come home

I promise I'll be back before long
Cos we got something on the way
But I won't sleep a wink at night
Till I'm back in your embrace
And I know it's going to be tough girl
Cos I'll miss the way you are
But I never felt so close to you right now
But I never been so far

Oh it's raining
It's raining
Raining in LA
Oh it's raining
It's raining
Raining in LA
Oh it's raining
It's raining
Raining in LA
Oh it's raining
It's raining
Raining in LA
Come home
Oh it's raining
It's raining
Raining in LA
Come home
Oh it's raining
It's raining

Raining in LA
Come home

Searching for sun
And we're miles away
Searching for something
We're miles away
Searching for sun
And we're miles away
We're miles away...
