

Suspended Animation

Franc Moody

Another day, another skirmish
This ain't exactly how we imagined it to go
I'm too proud, I'm not perfect
Been tryna plug the gaps but the water still flows

Looks like we're stuck in suspended animation
We keep on making the same mistakes (we keep on making mistakes
)
Looks like we're stuck in suspended animation
We keep on making the same mistakes (we keep on making mistakes
)

Function but we're broken, perpetual locomotion
Don't you think we've been here before?
I sweep it under carpets, treat me like your target
Don't think we can take anymore

Looks like we're stuck in suspended animation
We keep on making the same mistakes (we keep on making mistakes
)
Looks like we're stuck in suspended animation
We keep on making the same mistakes (we keep on making mistakes
)
Looks like we're stuck in suspended animation
We keep on making the same mistakes (we keep on making mistakes
)
Looks like we're stuck in suspended animation
We keep on making the same mistakes (we keep on making mistakes
)

(We keep on making mistakes
We keep on making mistakes)
