

Rare

Frances

Put the weight of your world on my shoulders
I wanna take away the strain
You can open your eyes when it's over
I'll be the first to say your name

When somebody says you're different
When they open up a scar
When they stare until their heads remember
Who you are

Oh, you're so rare
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Nobody comes close
No wonder you are so rare

Oh, you're so rare
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Nobody comes close
No wonder you are so rare

You're a one of kind, true exception
You amaze me every day
Come lay in my arms where it's warmer
Take a break from the pain

When somebody says you're different
When they open up a scar
When they stare until their heads remember
Who you are

Oh, you're so rare
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Nobody comes close
No wonder you are so rare

Oh, you're so rare
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Nobody comes close
No wonder you are so rare
