

Angel

Francesco Yates

Body of a goddess, put it on me, yeah
Say you ride or die and you down to ride me
I'm looking for a bad one, so remind me, yeah
Why I let you love me, got you smoking my weed, you got me
Still tryna hide every emotion on the low, yeah
But you're a freak and you don't like to take it slow
Move like a pro but I can't fool you 'cause you know, yeah
I'm only here 'cause I don't wanna be alone, ah yeah

In the dark
I try to see the light in you
You make me think I'm right for you
But I know what you are
In the night
I try to find you over and over
But I'm still far behind

But I just wanna touch you
Give you what you like
Baby, let me trust you
I will you hold you tight
Kiss me like you mean it
Feel it come inside
Let go of your demons
Take your wings and fly
You're an angel in my eyes, whoa-whoa
You're an angel in my eyes, oh-whoa

Body of a goddess, devil may cry (yeah)
Sell my soul to you, baby you know I just might (I just might)
Out here in the valley on this cold night (this cold night)
Worshiping the temple of your body so right (so right), whoa
But I know I could find some holiness in you (holiness in you)
You're in the moonlight standing beautiful and blue (beautiful and blue)
In every song, in every lyric, every tune (every tune)
[?] in the end you are the muse

Oh, no, in the dark
I try to see the light in you
You make me think I'm right for you
I know what you are
In the night
I try to find you over and over
But I'm still far behind

But I just wanna touch you
Give you what you like
Baby, let me trust you
I will you hold you tight
Kiss me like you mean it
Feel it come inside
Let go of your demons
Take your wings and fly
You're an angel in my eyes

(Born to live and born to die)
Oh, angel I say don't you cry

(In the sky)
I know we will find [?]

But I just wanna touch you
Give you what you like
Baby, let me trust you
I will hold you tight
Kiss me like you mean it
Feel it come inside
Let go of your demons
Take your wings and fly
You're an angel in my eyes, whoa-whoa
You're an angel in my eyes, oh-whoa

Put no one above you
Don't pay them no mind
You're an angel and I love you
You deserve to fly, oh-ooh
