

Johnny Poddell Song

Francis Dunnery

Johnny Poddell got a magician up his sleeve
Stealth bomber timing and an overdubs voice
Good choice in restaurants and good value for money
Handing out love and respect like it was some sort of candy

And I love him oh I love him
Cos he reminds me so much of me
That's self-obsession for ya...coupled with extremity
With a stage light on his face
When he wakes up every morning
It's great cos I can switch off w
When he's wearing his stage clothing
And I don't have to be that person
That I've set myself up to be
So sometimes I'm good for Johnny
And Johnny's definitely good for me

Walking down 72nd street trying to rent a room to hide
My mind's on 26th street but my dick's in the upper west side
I crashed down to Atlantic I was singing a new tune
There's oceans of them office girls all sitting on a fortune
Holding my tail and sucking on my delinquency
Spitting and praising like they ain't seen me before
And I love it oh I love it oh I absolutely love it
Cos it reminds me that I'm free
That's chauvinism for ya
Coupled with extremity

There's a new play out on Broadway baby
Tonight
And it's me

Alarm call every 8am to see if I've survived
I look to my left and I look to my right to see who's by my side
And I'm playing with myself again
There's a woman in my womb
I check my daily reflection and I pull myself around the room

Amanda keeps on calling said she wants to sing my tune
There's someone else to play tonight
And light all my candles and burn all my money
And let's say I'm not a loser
But I'm winning over finer men
I'm playing a role wherever I go
And wherever I think I can

There's a new play out on Broadway baby
There's a new play out on Broadway
There's a new play out on Broadway baby
There's a new play out on Broadway baby
Tonight
And it's me
