I would like to fly to the moon

And walk across my feelings for you

I would take a bucket and a spade

Dig a hole and then look at the love that I made

I would like to buy you sunflowers

I would like to build you a flower

And Lord it would be my finest hour

I would take that glint in your eye

Light a candle and hold up my love to the sky

I would like to buy you sunflowers

And so I looked at my watch on the way to the moon

I feel my love shining down on you

The feelings I traveled upon, flowers

Then I would like to buy you sunflowers if only I ha d the will to change

I would like to buy you sunflowers if only I had the guts to change

I would like to buy you sunflowers if only I had the time to

change

And so I looked at my watch on the way to the moon

I see my love shining down on you

The feelings I traveled upon were Hopeless, lifeless until the moon turned to the sun

Now I would like to buy you sunflowers
