

Afterburn

Franco

Well, I'll say this once
Thank you for everything you've done
Now you made me whole
A hole in the afterburn

Your lies twisting & turning me upside down
It's yearning
It's burning
Inside there's longing

Hey our lightning strikes again
Our love comes to an end
Has your light lost its shine

Now i will return
Turning my back as i enter
To lament & die
Dying so faithfully inside

Your lies twisting & turning me upside down
It's yearning
It's burning
Inside there's longing

Hey our lightning strikes again
Our love comes to an end
Has your light lost its shine

Turn into haze
Oh my love resolve this
Turn into hate
Oh my love's dissolving
