

Last Word

Franco

Can you hear something
That brightens up my eyes
Can you hear the nothing

Can you see the lies
Bombs above my skies
Can you hear the silence

I could see the end of a beautiful thing
There's nowhere to begin
I could see the end of a beautiful thing
A beautiful thing

The last word out
Could destroy your fate
Destroy your rhythm
The last word out

Can we dream awhile
I haven't seen you smile
Read between the lines

Saved a lot of nerves
To put these into words
Ready to ignite
Ready to explode

I could see the end of a beautiful thing
There's nowhere to begin
I could see the end of a beautiful thing
A beautiful thing

The last word out
Could destroy your fate
Destroy your rhythm
The last word out

Ohh always the last word out
Could destroy your fate
Destroy your rhythm
The last word out

The last word out

Destroys your fate
Destroys your rhythm
The last word out

The last word out
