

Next Train Out

Franco

I hope you understand my love
Sorry to have to pull the trigger

Well in time the question will linger
Haunting us until do you
Have to hide the lie now it takes me

So I have to go run as fast as I can
You're leading me on

Run go on and run will this consume me
The path that I have taken on this time

Well in time the question will linger
Haunting us until do you
Have to hide the lie now it takes me

So I have to go run as fast as I can
You're seething dead and gone
So I have to go run as fast as I can
Who will have to save me

Relax, release, in time we'll see
The stars that fall I pray and wish upon
In moments of distress
We're healing from this mess

So I have to go run as fast as I can
You're seething dead and gone
So I have to go run as fast as I can
Who will have to save me
