

Prophetic Eyes

Franco

I can see the lies before these eyes
I can see the pain before this heart
I can see your life before you rise
I can see the angst before you fight

No one escapes social pass
In his prophetic eyes
No more illusions
No more love
They can truly hide

I can see your plans before you try
I can see your life before you could swallow your pride

No one escapes social pass
In his prophetic eyes
No more illusions
No more love
They can truly hide
Hide
Hide

No one escapes social pass
In his prophetic eyes
No more illusions
No more love
They can truly hide

No one escapes social pass
In his prophetic eyes
No more illusions
No more love
They can truly hide
Hide
Hide
