

Spin and Fall

Franco

It's so cold where I lie wasted here for some time
Wish you were here but you left me here forsaken and I
Spin and fall
Spin and fall
Spin and fall
Spin and fall
Why so unfair all the laughter and the world seems for me
It's all around people mock and talk and stab you in the back
Spin and fall
Spin and fall
Spin and fall
Spin and fall
You get what you deserve and it hurts inside
You get what you deserve and it burns your pride
Still and got no clue
You get what you deserve and it hurts inside
You Get what you deserve and it burns your pride
You get what you deserve and it burns your pride
