Bad, wicked world Bad, wicked world They are about dressed to deceive Conquistadores that have been sent Bad, wicked world Bad, wicked world Some sell him out, some won't believe An architect named David Vincent A man too long without sleep He took a wrong turn and people just laughed A ship that is not there But he knows that it was It made a light and a buzz He's really hurt because People don't care People think he's a creep He will not stop, he keeps on talkin' Just a tie and a suit He's a lonely persuader Fist throwing crusader Against invaders won't be mute Bad, wicked world Bad, wicked world Some sell him out, some won't believe An architect named David Vincent Bad, wicked world Bad, wicked world They are about dressed to deceive Conquistadores that have been sent About once a week Another story has leaked and he's on it Just a suit and a tie will it ever end? He hasn't got a friend Pinkies that won't bend He really must try Bad, wicked world Bad, wicked world Some sell him out, some won't believe An architect named David Vincent