

A Dark Rainbow

Frank Carter & The Rattlesnakes

Three little words float off your lips
Three little words in each goodnight kiss
Three little words to make you feel near
Three little words for your tears

I've been high, and I've been low
I've gone too fast, and I've taken it slow
Three little words are all I know

Three little words when you look in my eyes
Three little words the perfect goodbye
Three little words when you want me to stay
Three little words and my name

I've been high, and I've been low
I've gone too fast, and I've taken it slow
Three little words are all I know

I've been high, and I've been low
I crashed and burned in a dark rainbow
Three little words are all I wrote

With these hands, hold my heart
Take these words through the dark
With this crown made of love
See the world from up above
Broke the curse, got so lost
Or maybe worse
A Tired God called my name
On rolling clouds, his kingdom came
There we fly

On lilac wing and lavender
In Ruby hearts and sapphire tears
They all cry
Hearts will sing
"A Dark Rainbow"
