

Loss

Frank Carter & The Rattlesnakes

I lost my family
I lost my friends
I lost my money and my sense
And I lost my faith
And I lost my hope
All the things I built
And then it fucking broke!

And I lost myself
I lost my mind
I lost my patience
And I don't know why
My dignity, integrity
My way of acting sensibly
I lost my silence and my sleep
Yeah we've all lost someone
Yeah their gone for good
Yeah it's fucking lonely
Yeah we all die too
Yeah it's fucking lonely
Yeah we all die too

I lost my reason
I lost my mind
I the season and the time
I lost the morning i lost the day
I watched my nights all slip away
I lost my lover
I lost my wife
I lost all purpose in my life

And I lost myself
I lost my mind
I lost my patience
And I don't know why
My dignity, integrity
My way of acting sensibly
I lost my silence and my sleep
Yeah we've all lost someone
Yeah their gone for good
Yeah it's fucking lonely
Yeah we all die too
Yeah it's fucking lonely
Yeah we all die too

I lost my lover
I lost my wife
I lost all purpose in my life

And I lost myself
I lost my mind
I lost my patience
And I don't know why
My dignity, integrity
My way of acting sensibly
I lost my silence and my sleep

Yeah we all die too
Yeah it's fucking lonely

Yeah it's fucking lonely
Yeah it's fucking lonely
Yeah we all die too

Fuck, fuck
