

Living Like A Cry

Frank Duval

Living like a cry
Living just to die
Living - what does it mean? - Living.
Never caring what they say
What they think about my way.
Never asking what will be tomorrow or another day.
Living like a cry
Living just to die.
Living like a cry
Living just to die
. . . .
Living
That can be a smile
Carrying me just for a while.
A hand to hold me
A dream to guide me.
Living like a cry
Living just to die
Living means rising.
Living like a cry
Living just to die.
Living like a cry
Living just to die
. . . .
Living
That can be a smile
Carrying me just for a while. . . .
