

Where Do We Belong? Anywhere But Here

Frank Iero

Someone I love threw me away,
Someone I love threw me away,
Someone I love threw me away.

But I don't mind
But I don't mind at all.
Something's change but they don't get better.
I'm so sick and so tired of trying
To tell them that I'll never do it,
No I'll never make it alone.
But pay no mind.
It fades in time.
Don't we all?

Someone I love threw me away
Someone I love threw me away
Someone I love threw me
But I don't mind
But I don't mind at all.

You said people can change when they lose their hearts.
It could be gone forever,
But sometimes they find it in hell
Or a part of heaven.
So is this hell or are we even?
Well I've got time
I've got time to burn.

Why do we run
Away from ourselves?
Faking this calm,
Has taken it's toll.
To look in those eyes...
But I'm having fun
Pretending I belong.
Convincing myself that I never got scarred.
So no one thinks...
So no one knows

That someone I love threw me away,
someone I ove threw me away,
someone I love ripped through me
but I don't mind.
I'll be fine.
I don't mind.
We'll get by some how.
