

Hero

Frank Ocean

My flag is American, but I love some Queen
I'm young enough to vote, and toke the trees
I'll be playing concerts in the mud, until the sequel
I'll be finding subjects to paint in the buff, behind the easel
Tryna fuck, I'm a bad boy
I'm a punk, I'm a black man, I could dunk

And I'm hanging low, and swinging for Home, home

What you say
You need a Hero
Heard 'em say
You need say

How high, tell me how high shall we jump
How far, really how far have we come
I've been wondering if we'd be better off without it
I was wondering were we better off before

Who needs you, who needs you
Who loves you, who doesn't
What you say
You need say
