

Love Looks So Well On You

Frank Sinatra

Like moonlight looks on a country side, like a rose that's silvered with dew,
Like sunlight looks on a meadow, love looks so well on you.
Like children look on a carousel, all the joys they feel shining through,
Like picnics look on a Sunday, love looks so well on you.
It's bright as the starlight in your eyes, with stardust in your hair,
And oh, that expression on your face, is one you should always wear.
Everyday you grow even lovelier, yes, you do, my darling, you do.
I love you every day of your life, cause love looks so well on you.
