

Break The Same

Frank Walker

The same, the same, the same
The same, the same

You're out at the bar where we used to drink
Playing those records, are you thinking 'bout me?
While I'm lying here alone, I guess that
Two hearts don't ever break the same
(Two hearts don't ever break the same) mmh

I'm happy that you're happy, hate to rain on your parade
The lonely nights have never felt so lonely since we caved in
And there's nothing left to say but

Sometimes two people can fall out of love
And some nights [?]
But sometimes there's no one else to blame
I guess two hearts don't ever break the same
(Two hearts don't ever break the same)
I guess two hearts don't ever break the same
I've tried kissing other people
But it ain't right, and I can't do this anymore
Wish there was someone else [?]
I guess two hearts don't ever break the same
(Two hearts don't ever break the same)
They never break the same

The same, the same, the same
The same, the same, the same
They never break the same
The same, the same, the same
The same, the same

They say that scars heal but I wish we could talk
Still remember the good times getting drunk in New York
While I'm lying here alone, I guess that
Two hearts don't ever break the same, oh

I'm happy that you're happy, hate to rain on your parade
The lonely nights have never felt so lonely since we caved in

Sometimes two people can fall out of love
And some nights [?]
But sometimes there's no one else to blame
I guess two hearts don't ever break the same
(Two hearts don't ever break the same)
I guess two hearts don't ever break the same
I've tried kissing other people
But it ain't right, and I can't do this anymore
Wish there was someone else [?]
I guess two hearts don't ever break the same
They never break the same

The same, the same, the same
The same, the same, the same
They never break the same
The same, the same, the same

The same, the same, the same
They never break the same
The same, the same, the same
The same, the same, the same
They never break the same
The same, the same, the same
The same, the same, the same
They never break the same
The same, the same, the same
The same, the same, the same
They never break the same
The same, the same, the same
The same, the same
They never break the same
