

Piano

Frank Walker

And it's always the smallest things
Just like that tabletop with the coffee rings
Take me back to easy times, used to have no fear
Let me ease your mind, I'ma be right here

Darling, why couldn't you stay
To play that piano? Play, play
'Cause I'd give my life for a day
To hear you play that piano, play, play
I know you're not here, but I swear I can hear that piano

Melodies through the bedroom floor fell silent
I lay awake, but you play no more
Give me back the easy times, you said, "Have no fear
Let me ease your mind, I'ma be right here"

So, darling, why couldn't you stay
To play that piano? Play, play
'Cause I'd give my life for a day
To hear you play that piano, play, play
I know you're not here, but I swear I can hear that piano

I know you're not here, but I swear I can hear that piano
