

You Blew It

Frankie Coccozza

You're short of a job, and your trainers are filthy
You're in for a shock if you thought it was easy,
Look what you got, why are you empty?

You lost all the keys but you love excuses,
You're a wreck, you're a cheat, how does it feel to be useless?
You're a disease, better get used to it
Had the world at your feet,

Then you fucking blew it,
And I knew it,
Even the mirror's looking through me
Well maybe there's no beauty
I blew it,
And I knew it,
I'm just a lonely dreamer,
So smile cause they can see that you blew it.

They showed you the snow, and now you're freezing,
Nowhere to go, but you find yourself leaving,
Back to the hole you don't wanna live in.
Scum of the earth, didn't they tell ya?
It would only get worse with the cards that they dealt ya,
Swallowed the hurt and don't even chew it
Had the world in your hands,

Then you you fucking blew it
And I knew it,
Even the mirror's looking through me
Well maybe there's no beauty
I blew it,
And I knew it,
I'm just a lonely dreamer,
So smile cause they can see that you blew it...

The demons are gonna get ya
Oh the demons are gonna get ya,
The Demons are gonna get ya

Then you fucking blew it,
And I knew it,
Even the mirror's looking through me
Well maybe there's no beauty
I blew it,
And I knew it,
I'm just a lonely dreamer,
So smile cause they can see that you blew it.
