

Magnetic Personality

Frankie Cosmos

The psychic told me that
I was only there 'cause
I needed a friend
And she held my hand
And she told me that
I was gonna change
But she didn't know what way
What a bust

Everything
Tis telling me that
I'm regressing at
Light speed
Light speed

I don't still play the guitar every day
Ask me how I am and I won't really say
I got a weeks worth of questions
But you answer them all with a glance
I could have seen it coming
But I left it up to chance

I had a magnetic personality once
But I got too tired to keep it up

Single tear, single tear, single tear, must be nice
