

Marbles

Frankie Cosmos

I might go to the party at the house tonight
But maybe I won't, maybe I won't
Burn the coffee, one for taste
Gotta watch it go to waste

You wanna be loved (you wanna be loved?)
Do you wanna be seen (do you wanna be seen?)
You wanna be hated, you wanna be mean
We both know it's all the same
Doesn't matter which way you swing

Sometimes I wanna extend
Sometimes the pain is so immense
It's churning me out
But then you turn around
I'm a lover, I give light
I was never made to fight
Oh darling I wanna
Give you all my marbles
You're a perfect planet
I want to inhabit
