

Strange Lady In Town

Frankie Laine

Strange lady in town, strange lady in town
She's all that any man could ever hope or pray for
If I were king, I'd trade the crown
For that strange, strange lady in town
(Strange lady in town)

Oh, heart of mine, you're in danger
There's a strange lady in town
Who is this heart-stealin' stranger?
Who is turnin' the town upside down

Here hair is red as the settin' sun
Her lips are ripe as the corn
The lights that rise in her sea-green eyes
Make a man kinda glad he was born

Strange lady in town, strange lady in town
She's all that any man could ever hope or pray for
If I were king, I'd trade the crown
For that strange, strange lady in town
(Strange lady in town)

Ain't got no ring for her finger
And I can't buy her a gown
But rain or shine, I'll still make her mine
That strange, strange lady in town

Strange lady in town, strange lady in town
She's all that any man could ever hope or pray for
If I were king, I'd trade the crown
For that strange, strange lady in town

(Strange lady in town)
Strange lady in town

(Strange lady in town)
Strange lady in town

(Strange lady in town)
Strange lady in town
