

No Love At All

Frankie Valli

There ain't no love at all
There ain't no love, no love
No love at all
No love at all
No matter where I turn
No matter where I fall
No love at all
No love at all

The morning comes to take the night away
There's so much to forget
Love touched us for a while
Then took your smile from me

There was no better way to say goodbye so we broke down and cried
Nothing I ever knew would follow you

There ain't no love at all
There ain't no love, no love
No love at all
No love at all
No matter where I turn
No matter where I fall
No love at all
No love at all

Behind an open door, an empty room
Empty without you
There's nowhere that I can hide
The hurt inside

There ain't no love at all (ain't no love at all)
There ain't no love, no love
No love at all
(There ain't no love, no love, no love. There ain't no love at all)
There ain't no love, no love
No love at all
No love at all
