

Second Thoughts

Frankie Valli

Second thoughts about all of should I stay or go
Second thoughts about all of is it gonna grow
Everytime I think of leavin' you behind
Baby then I find I still love you
Second thoughts about all of
(Second thoughts about all of)
Was it meant to be
Second thoughts about all of
(Second thoughts about all of)
Will you still love me
Everytime I think of all the times we've had
All the good and bad that we've been through

I keep thinkin' about the way you hold me
Keep thinkin' about the things we've done
I keep thinkin' about the way you told me baby I'm the only one
I keep thinkin' every night about you
Wonder what I'm gonna do
Can I live with you or live without you
Baby I'm torn between the two

I keep thinkin' about the way you hold me
Keep thinkin' about the things we've done
I keep thinkin' about the way you told me baby I'm the only one
I keep thinkin' every night about you
Wonder what I'm gonna do
Can I live with you or live without you
Baby I'm torn between the two

Second thoughts about all of
(Second thoughts about all of)
Was it meant to be
Second thoughts about all of
(Second thoughts about all of)
Or do you still love me
Second thoughts about all of
(Second thoughts about all of)
Was it meant to be
